TUCKER ELLIS WELCOMES NEW PARTNER PETER CHOATE

The law firm of Tucker Ellis LLP is pleased to welcome Peter Choate as a Partner in its Los Angeles office.

Mr. Choate represents major corporations in pharmaceutical and toxic tort/mass tort product liability litigation in coordinated proceedings in state and federal courts across the country. He works with trial teams to formulate, coordinate, and execute the scientific-legal defense in high-profile product liability cases.

"We're pleased to welcome Peter as our newest partner," said Rita Maimbourg, chair of the Tucker Ellis Trial Department. "His experience leading legal teams—including a team in one of the largest pharmaceutical product liability cases in history—adds another layer of depth to our mass tort and product liability practice."

Mr. Choate received his bachelor's degree magna cum laude from the University of California, Los Angeles where he was Phi Beta Kappa. He earned his law degree cum laude at Loyola Law School, Los Angeles.
