Gabrielle Cutler represents clients in a variety of litigation, with an emphasis on mass tort and product liability matters.

In addition to her work in the area of mass tort and product liability, Gabby has gained experience in areas of litigation including commercial, employment, real estate, and construction defect. She is experienced in all aspects of discovery and motion practice. Her varied experience makes her aptly suited for her work defending mass tort and product liability matters for the firm's diverse client base.

Gabby was a competing member of the Moot Court Honors Board at McGeorge School of Law, where she developed her research, advocacy, and writing skills.

In her free time, Gabby enjoys playing violin, working out, attending sporting events, traveling, and spending time with her family.
