John A. Favret III spends most of his professional time defending medical device and pharmaceutical manufacturers, health care institutions, physicians, and nurses in all aspects of litigation in state and federal courts throughout Ohio.

He also has experience in products liability, business litigation, and in the defense of a political subdivision under Ohio's Political Subdivision Tort Liability Statute.

While in college at the University of Wisconsin, John started four years on the Badger football team, was a part of two Big Ten and Rose Bowl championship teams, and was co-captain his senior year.
